expeditiously. The grievance of the petitioner College is that the main petition is not disposed of but interim orders have been made on 18.7.2011 and 27.7.2011. Learned counsel for the petitioner states that in regard to students who have already been admitted, classes were going on and but for the interim orders, there is no impediment for continuing the classes.

In view of the said submission, there shall be interim stay of the order of the High Court for a period of four weeks, within which period the petitioner may make a request to the High Court to hear and dispose of the writ petition finally. made clear that if within that period the matter is not decided in favour of the petitioner College, the High Court is at liberty to give impugned order.
