UPON hearing counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

This is a petition for setting aside the order passed by the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission whereby it refused to interfere with the order passed by the State Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission for remand of the complaint filed by the respondent to the District Forum for adjudication thereof on merits.

We have heard learned counsel for the petitioners and are satisfied that the impugned order does not call for interference under Article 136 of the Constitution.

The special leave petition is dismissed. It is needless to say that the District Forum shall decide the complaint in terms of the directions given by the State Commission without being influenced by the observations contained in the impugned order and the one passed by the State Commission.
