Delay condoned.

We have heard learned counsel for the petitioner. However, considering the facts of the case, we are of the view that the prayer for bail cannot be accepted at this stage since the trial is going on. We direct that the trial be concluded as expeditiously as possible preferably within a period of four months.

-2-

If trial is not concluded within four months, liberty is given to the petitioner to renew his prayer for bail before the High Court and the same be disposed of by the High Court on its own merits.

The Special Leave Petition is dismissed.
