ORDER

Having heard learned counsel for the parties, we are of the view that this matter is required to be resolved by the High Court as expeditiously as possible. We are not, therefore, inclined to entertain the Special Leave Petitions and request the High Court to hear out and dispose of the matter expeditiously, since we are informed that some of the Agreements between the petitioner and Mandi Committees and Marketing Boards are valid for this year, while some have already been terminated.

We are informed that the matter is being heard by the High Court as a part-heard matter. We request the High Court to dispose of the matter within the month of November, 2008, if possible.
