Learned counsel for respondents appears and accepts notice.

Petitioner-colleges herein seek permission to present their students for the ensuing examination scheduled to commence shortly. These students were admitted for the academic year 2007-2008. Learned counsel appearing for the State of Madhya Pradesh had submitted that these colleges provisionally admitted students by themselves apart from the students who were admitted on the basis of the centralized counselling and according to the for the State, they were not entitled to appear for the examination. For the time being, we are not deciding that issue and we direct that all the students may be permitted to appear for the ensuing examination but the results of the candidates who were admitted not on the basis of the centralized counselling may not be declared.
