O R D E R

1. Issue notice returnable on eight weeks.
2. Heard learned counsel appearing for the petitioner. We notice from the impugned order that the complainant had appeared and objected to for grant of bail. Infact, the learned counsel had also opposed the bail application of the petitioner. In that view of the matter, we hereby direct the petitioner to implead the objector as second respondent.

3. At this juncture, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner expresses his remorse and submits that he will take immediate steps to implead the objector. His submission is placed on record. If necessary application is not filed within a week, the interim protection granted would not come to the rescue of the petitioner.

4. There shall be interim protection from any coercive steps being taken against the petitioners.

5. List after partial Court working days.
