Since the impugned order dated 09.08.2010 is only interlocutory in nature by which the High Court has stayed the on going investigation, we see no reason to interfere. The Special Leave Petition is, accordingly, dismissed.

Liberty is, however, given to the petitioner to approach the High Court with an application for early hearing for disposal of Writ Petition and/or vacating the interim order. In case such a prayer is made, the High Court may examine the same on its merits and pass orders in accordance with law.
