O R D E R

These petitions have been filed for transfer of the cases pending in Small Causes Court at Bombay.

We have heard the petitioner who has appeared in person and perused the record.

The petitioner has sought transfer of the cases pending at Bombay on the ground that he is being threatened by the opposite parties and is being physically prevented from attending the Court proceedings.

Since the petitioner has not given the details of the so-called threats held out to him by the respondents and he has not named the persons who are said to have threatened him, it is not possible to rely upon the assertion made in the transfer petitions and accept the prayer made therein.

The transfer petitions are accordingly dismissed.

However, it is made clear that if the petitioner files an application before the trial Court for providing police protection, the concerned Court shall consider such request and pass appropriate order.
