Learned counsel for the petitioner seeks leave to withdraw the special leave petitions stating that the petitioner is prepared to make deposit in terms of second proviso to Section 7 of the Payment of Gratuity Act. He, however, prays that the appellate authority may be directed to entertain the appeals after the requisite deposit in terms of the said proviso is made.

Accordingly, the special leave petitions are dismissed as not pressed. We, however, direct that if the petitioner makes the requisite deposit within four weeks from today and moves an application before the appellate authority for entertainment of the appeals, the said application(s) shall be considered in accordance with law.
