ORDER

These three writ petitioners are existing medical colleges. They have submitted applications for starting post-graduate courses in various disciplines in their colleges. The matter is now pending with the Medical Council of India. The grievance of the petitioners is that M.C.I. Is not taking timely steps therefore, sanction for starting the courses is getting delayed. Learned counsel appearing for the M.C.I. submits that they would conduct the inspection in these colleges within a reasonable period and submit its recommendations to the Union of India for taking appropriate action. The writ petitions are disposed of accordingly.
