The order dismissing the special leave petition was as under:

“IA No.1607 of 2019 is allowed.

Civil Appeal Nos.9316-9317 of 2010, preferred by the present petitioner were dismissed by this Court on 11.03.2015. Thereafter, the petitioner preferred review petition in Central Administrative Tribunal contending that there was new material, which supported his case.

The submission was rejected by the Central Administrative Tribunal, which decision was also challenged before this Court and the special leave petition in that behalf stood dismissed on 08.05.2017.

Raising same submissions now the petitioner has approached this Court under Article 32 of the Constitution of India.

We have heard petitioner, who is appearing in person and have gone through the record.

We see no reason to entertain this petition. This writ petition is, accordingly dismissed.

Pending application(s), if any, shall stand disposed of.”

It is the aforesaid order which is now sought to be reviewed in the present review petition.

We have gone through the review petition and do not find any apparent error on record to justify interference. This review petition is dismissed.
