O R D E R

This matter arises from an application for bail during the pendency of the appeal before the High Court.

The High Court while dismissing the petitioners prayer for bail, having regard to the fact that they are foreign nationals, has made the following direction:

"However, considering the fact that the appellants are foreigners, the lower court record has been received, we expedite the hearing of the appeal. The office is directed to prepare the paper book within six months from today."

We hope and trust that in pursuance of the aforesaid direction, the petitioners' appeal shall be heard at an early date.

Subject to the above observation, the special leave petition stands dismissed.
