By the impugned order dated 23rd February, 2021, bail has been granted to the first respondent pending the trial. Nothing is placed on record to show that thereafter the first respondent has misused the facility granted under the impugned order. Therefore, at this stage, no case is made out to interfere with the impugned order granting bail to the first respondent.

The Special Leave Petition is, accordingly, dismissed.

In the event, the first respondent misuses the liberty granted to him under the impugned order, it will be always open for the petitioner or the second respondent/State to apply for cancellation of bail.

Pending applications stand disposed of accordingly.
