O R D E R

According to the respondents all due payments are made to the petitioners. As a matter of fact the counsel for the respondents states that the petitioners have been paid a sum of Rs.1,52,000/- (one lakh and fifty two thousand) in excess of their dues. We therefore see no reason to proceed further with these contempt petitions. These contempt petitions are dismissed.

In case, however, the petitioners are left with any further claims, they may seek their remedies by filing an application under Section 33C(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act or under any other provision as may be permissible in law.
