O R D E R

Heard.

We do not find any ground to interfere in view of the finding in the impugned order that the petitioner is an encroacher and had no title.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that documents of title are available but could not be placed before the High Court.

If it is so, the petitioners are at liberty to move the High Court again. Any such an application may be considered by the High Court on its own merits having regard to the documents which may be produced by the petitioners.

We make it clear that we have not expressed any opinion on the contentions which are proposed to be raised before the High Court.

The special leave petition is accordingly disposed of.

Pending applications, if any, shall also stand disposed of.
