UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

Delay condoned.

In this case, the special leave petition is directed against the order of the High Court directing reinstatement of the respondent who is facing both criminal proceedings and also departmental proceedings. Learned counsel for the respondent points out that even before filing of the special leave petition, the respondent has been reinstated. This fact is not disputed by the learned senior counsel for the petitioner.

Learned senior counsel for the petitioner points out that there are other cases awaiting disposal of similar questions.

In such circumstances, we dispose of this special leave petition as having become infructuous but make it clear that we have not pronounced on the questions of law and that we leave the questions of law open.

Pending applications stand disposed of.
