O R D E R

Heard.

We do not see any reason to interfere with the order passed by the High Court especially when the High Court has already directed the Magistrate concerned to expedite the trial of the case.

Keeping in view the fact that the matter has been pending for nearly eight years before the trial court, we hope and trust that the Magistrate will in compliance with the directions issued to him complete the trial within one year from today. The Chief Judicial Magistrate would also do well to monitor the progress of the case and if there is any unnecessary delay in disposal of the matter by the Magistrate, report the same to the High Court for appropriate action both on judicial as well as administrative side.

With these observations, the special leave petition is dismissed.
