UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

Delay condoned.

We are inclined to dismiss this special leave petition finding no merit therein.

However, learned senior counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is in jail for more than sixteen years and still continues to be so in jail.

If that be so then, in our opinion, the petitioner shall always be at liberty to apply for his release on remission in accordance with remission rules application to the concerned State. On such application/prayer being made by the petitioner in that behalf, we direct the concerned authority to examine the case of the petitioner on its own merits in accordance with law and pass appropriate orders.

A copy of this order be sent to the accused concerned to enable him to approach the authority as permitted.

With the aforesaid observation, the special leave petition is dismissed.

Pending applications shall also stand disposed of.
