UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

When the matter is called, none appears on behalf of the petitioners. As such, Ms. M.B. Ramya (Mob.No. 9600549757), a young counsel present in the Court, who has recently joined the Bar, is appointed as amicus curiae (pro bono).

The matter was passed over to enable the learned amicus curiae to peruse the Court file and assist the Court in the matter.

Even on the second call, none appears for the petitioners. As such, the learned amicus curiae proceeded in the matter.

Registry is directed to supply a complete paper book to the learned amicus curiae in a digital form, who shall continue to assist the court. She shall also get in touch with Mr. S.

Gowthaman, AOR for the petitioner and apprise him of the passing of the order.

She invites this Court's attention to the office report dated 04.09.2024. The office report reflects that the petitioners have neither taken fresh steps nor furnished fresh particulars in respect of respondent nos. 1,3-7. As such service of notice on the aforesaid respondents is not complete.

Indulgentlly, last opportunity of four weeks is afforded to the learned counsel for the petitioners to take fresh steps and furnish fresh particulars in respect of the unserved respondent nos. 1,3-7, failing which, the petition shall stand automatically dismissed qua the aforesaid respondents for non-prosecution without any further reference to the Court.

If the steps are taken, complete in all respects, the notice be issued to the unserved respondents, returnable on 24.10.2024. Dasti service, in addition, is permitted.

Assistance rendered by the amicus curiae is highly appreciated.
