O R D E R

The High Court has ordered stay subject to deposit of 100% of the amount. However, there is no order for release of the same. After hearing both the parties, we pass the following order :

Instead of 100% deposit, the deposit is reduced to 25%.

It is open for the respondent to approach the High Court for appropriate relief relating to release of the 25% amount deposited by the petitioner. If such a prayer is made by the respondent, it is open for the High Court to decide the same at an early date on its own merits and impose such conditions as the High court may deem fit.

The special leave petition is, accordingly, disposed of.

Pending applications, if any, stand disposed of accordingly.
