O R D E R

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

Pursuant to the order passed by this Court on 24.01.2014, Mr.Rajeev Sadanandan as well as the Commissioner for Entrance Examinations have appeared in person today. They have been explained as to why this Court has been insisting for only two counselling for admissions to MBBS and other medical courses.

Having considered all the aspects of the matter, we drop the contempt proceedings and treat the same as closed.

However, we make it clear that the respondents/alleged contemnors or the authorities of the State Government will not repeat the practice of holding more than two counselling in future.

The contempt petition is disposed of and the contempt notice is discharged.
