Taken on Board.

We do not find any ground to interfere with the impugned order of the High Court. However, it is made clear that the petitioner is free to move a regular bail application and if any such application is filed, it is for the concerned court to consider it uninfluenced by any of the observation made in the High Court order. The special leave petition is dismissed accordingly.
