In pursuance of our earlier order, an amount of Rs.3,50,00,000/- (Rupees three crore and fifty lac only) has been deposited by the appellant and the same has been kept in a fixed deposit. We have been apprised that the respondents-Association, which is the respondent in Civil

Appeal No.7152 of 2016 has 30 memmmbers and there are two respondents in Civil Appeal No.7153 of 2016. The National Consumer Disputes Redressal commission has granted different benefits to the members of the Association and the individual respondents in CA No.7153 of 2016.

Keeping in view the entire controversy, we direct that the Registry shall disburse a sum of Rs.4,00,000/- to each of the members of the Association in CA No.7152 of 2016 on proper identification and after obtaining requisite affidavit. As far as the respondents in Civil Apepal No.7153 are concerned, they shall also be extended the same benefit of Rs.4,00,000/- (Rupees four lac only) on similar terms. It is submitted at the Bar that both the respondents are co-owners, and, therefore, they shall be given a total sum of Rs.4,00,000/- (Rupees four lac only). Needless to say, the present direction that has been passed keeping in view the grievance of the respondents and it shall be subject to final adjudication of the appeal.
