UPON hearing the petitioner-in-person and the counsel
the Court made the following

O R D E R

Though one of the contentions of the petitioner appearing in person is that the High Court condoned the delay of 632 days in preferring the appeal by the respondent herein without even hearing the petitioner, we find that when the order was passed, the petitioner was present and with the consent of the parties, the appeal was taken up for final hearing and decision. Having regard to the above, the petitioner who appears in person submits that since the appeal has already been decided by the High Court on merits, he would confine his arguments to the correctness of the said order on merits.

List the matter for hearing on 19.02.2018.
