O R D E R

Heard the learned counsel in support of these special leave petitions.

Delay condoned.

In spite of the undertaking given to this Court way back on 27.9.2011, the petitioners have not filed the documents, for which time was sought once again today. We are not inclined to entertain that request. The special leave petitions are dismissed. The special leave petitions stand dismissed.

The issue involved in these matters is about the City Compensatory Allowance to be paid to the Government employees concerned and is being agitated for over 30 years. We, therefore, direct that the Writ Petition (C) No.14181/1993, wherefrom this matter arose, will be notified before the concerned Bench of the Punjab and Haryana High Court after four weeks. The State Government shall file an affidavit before the High Court stating (i) that they have complied with the order of the High Court; (ii) that the City

Compensatory Allowance will be paid and will not be recovered from the employees and (iii) the cost of Rs.2000/- directed by this Court, has been deposited in this Court.
