I.A. No.132988/2025

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that because of intervening developments which may lead to family settlement, petitioners would not like to press the interlocutory application seeking deletion of the names of respondent nos. 2 to 9 at this stage.

She submits that this application may be kept pending for the time being.

In view of the above, let this application be listed along with the main special leave petition before the regular bench.
