1. Delay condoned.

2. Leave granted.

3. It is submitted by the learned counsel for the appellants and is not disputed by the learned counsel for the respondents that the case of the appellants is now covered by the Judgment of this Court rendered in "Indore Development Authority vs. Manoharlal & Ors. Etc." (2020) 8 SCC 129. However, the learned counsel for the respondents submits that other issues need to be decided by the High Court. The said submission is of course disputed by the learned counsel for the appellants.

4. In view of the above, the impugned order passed by the High Court deserves to be set aside and is, accordingly, set aside. Without expressing any opinion, the matter is remanded to the High Court for deciding it afresh in the light of the said Judgment (supra).

5. It is expected that the petition shall be decided by the High Court as expeditiously as possible and in accordance with law.

6. The Appeal is disposed of in above terms.
