O R D E R

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

We decline to interfere in this special leave petition. The special leave petition is dismissed accordingly.

However, we request the High Court to consider expediting the hearing of appeal as the petitioner has already undergone around 8 years of sentence period.

In the event, the appeal cannot be taken up for hearing or reach for hearing, for no fault of the appellant within one year from today, the petitioner may apply for bail afresh, which application can be considered by the High Court on its own merits.
